HISTORY of the BUILDING

Built around 1850, this historic location in downtown Harrison has served many roles, from a hardware store and buggy shop to an I.O.O.F. meeting hall. The building features an underground tunnel system once connected to the Whitewater River, which may have been part of the Underground Railroad. The restaurant preserves its history through original tin ceilings, a 100-year-old mirror from the Central Hotel, and its name— as Harrison Avenue was originally called Market Street.
